Dr. George Makita Alula, is the author of the book “The Ignored Economic Genocide – Killing the majority to protect the minority, Sex used as weapon” – The ongoing ‘economic genocide’ has led to the death of more than six million people in ten years. The world silent over the Congolese Genocide is beyond belief. These mass killings perpetrated to access the country’s natural resources: Timbers, diamonds, gold, Coltan (used in High-Tech industries). Civilians are killed on daily bases despite the presence of the largest UN peace keeping force. It’s time to end this genocide and bring warlords to justice for crimes against humanity.

Dr. George Alula has over 20 years of experience with expertise in both high tech and business management and operations. He has an Extensive financial, operations, sales/marketing, and business development expertise acquired in rapid-growth and turnaround environments within Fortune global 500 companies: Telecommunication, banking, Media, and automotive industries.
